Wireless Local Area Network
Configuration Guide
For Apple Mac OS

Shek Mun Campus
College of International Education
Hong Kong Baptist University

Version 1.0
1. Setting up the “BU-Standard” as followings:
   1.1. Click the “Wi-Fi” signal icon on the top right hand corner of Apple desktop,
   1.2. Make sure the “AirPort” is On.
   1.3. Select “Open Network Preferences…”

!Image

2. Under the “Network” tab:
3. Under the “AirPort” tab:

3.1. Double click the “BU-Standard” option

4. Enter the parameters as shown below:
5. At the TCP/IP tab, configure IPv4 as “Using DHCP”; press the “Renew DHCP Lease” button to refresh the IP; press “OK” button to complete.

6. Under the “802.1X” tab, change the settings as the followings:
7. Return to the Network screen,
   7.1. Click on the “AirPort” connection
   7.2. Select Network Name as “BU_Standard”
   7.3. Click the “Connect” button

8. In the Authenticating to network “BU-Standard” Tab. Enter Username, Password (this information are the same as ITO email), and press “OK”.

9. If the connection success, The “AirPort” light is “green” and the Status shows “Connected”.
Please wait for few seconds if the Status is Authenticating.

--- End --