

Exploring Natural Resources at Borneo

Borneo is the third largest island on earth with EXCEPTIONALLY rich natural resources
Extensive tropical RAINFORESTS & WETLANDS are rich in biodiversity, supporting many AMAZING WILDLIFE

Activities:

- Observing for wildlife, including birds, monkeys, otters, sea turtles and many more!
- Visiting nature reserves and conservation centres, experiencing on-the-ground conservation works and communicating with conservation experts and local people;
- Learning the challenges in fisheries resources

Application method:

- Fill-in the Online enrolment form with the QR code at the poster or visiting CIE website: <https://www.cie.hkbu.edu.hk/main/en/> (Student Development > College Events) to get the enrolment link.
- Prepare a cheque for the first installment: HKD$ 3,300 (payable to "Hong Kong Baptist University"), and photocopies of travel permit (HKID card AND Passport)
- All the above items should be put into an sealed envelope and submitted to: "Exploring Natural Resources at Borneo Study tour - Collection Box" at 12/F, Shek Mun Campus.

Application Link:
<https://goo.gl/YjPi5N>

Objectives:

- * Understand the importance of biodiversity protection and natural resources management;
- * Experience and learn from the best-practices in nature conservation works and ecotourism operation;
- * Develop skills to work as team players when conducting ecological studies and nature appreciation.

Tour Date:

24 - 29 June 2019

- * Fee: HKD$11,500 (Including Airfare, Accommodation, Meals, Transportation, Insurance & Eco-tours)
- * First Installment: HKD$3,300
- * Interview Date:
15 November 2018 late afternoon
- * Application Deadline:
8 November 2018

All photos in this poster were taken by Dr. Alan Leung

