AHMED Sumyiah

Being a Secretary of Mind Brew, CIE brought together students and lecturers in a very friendly atmosphere. Participating in a variety of activities, I received tremendous support from my lecturers and peers. The activities enabled me to accomplish greater heights in both my academics and personal development.

Studying at CIE has been a delightful period in my life. From improving myself academically to growing my mindset, I received tremendous support from my lecturers and peers. The activities enabled me to accomplish greater heights in both my academics and personal development.
